

List of New Testament lectionaries

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

 Codex Harcleianus

A New Testament Lectionary is a handwritten copy of a lectionary, or book of New Testament Bible readings. Lectionaries may be written in uncial or minuscule Greek letters,^[1] on parchment, papyrus, vellum, or paper.^[2]

New Testament lectionaries are distinct from:

- New Testament papyri
- New Testament uncials
- New Testament minuscules

Lectionaries which have the Gospels readings are called Evangelitaria or Evangelistaria, those which have the Acts or Epistles, Apostoli or Praxapostoli. They appear from the 6th century.

Before Scholz only 57 Gospel lectionaries and 20 Apostoloi were known. Scholz added to the list 58-181 Evangelistarioi and 21-58 Apostoloi.^[3] Gregory in 1909 enumerated 2234 lectionaries. To the present day 2453 lectionary manuscripts have been catalogued by the \(INTF\) in Münster.

The lectionary text is basically Byzantine with detectable Caesarean influence.^[4] Lectionaries usually agreed with the Textus Receptus but with some departures.

List of named or notable lectionaries

- The numbers (#) are the now standard system of Caspar René Gregory.
- Dates are estimated to the nearest 50 year increment (except lectionaries dated by scribes).
- Content only the Gospel lessons (Evangelistarion), and other lessons from the rest of the NT apart from Revelation (Apostolos). Sometimes the surviving portion of a codex is so limited that specific books, chapters or even verses can be indicated. Linked articles, where they exist, generally specify content in detail, by verse.
